About Camp Barney Medintz

Camp Barney Medintz, the summer overnight camp of the Marcus Jewish Community Center of Atlanta, is located on 540 beautiful acres in the north Georgia mountains, just 75 miles from Atlanta. Founded in 1963, Camp Barney serves more than 1200 children, ages 7-17, and more than 300 staff from the United States and several other countries each summer.

We offer a Jewish camping experience rich in fun, friendship, adventure, and Jewish culture. Our facilities are terrific and our activities and trips endless, but the Camp Barney experience is about so much more. Camp Barney is about the lifelong friendships developed, the sense of independence and self-confidence gained, and the connection to Jewish identity secured. All while our campers have the best summers of their lives.
